

This part is made from an 80/20 2046 End Cap. It has one hole cut in it 5/8 inch diameter. This hole is just clearance for the 1/2 inch lead screw to pass through it. This part keeps the 80/20 bearings from sliding out of the X Axis Slide on a Alfamill. Could be used on other machines.